Day One:

- Arrive in the Laurel Highlands, visit the quirky Big Mac Museum, featuring unique exhibits, a 14-foot Big Mac sculpture and a fully functional neighborhood McDonalds.
- Celebrate regional heritage and the entrepreneurial spirit that transformed a small Mennonite family farm into an industrial powerhouse at West Overton Village, birthplace of Henry Clay Frick, business partner to Andrew Carnegie. Do a Whiskey tasting before enjoying the Overholt Homestead, Distillery Museum, Summer Kitchen, Carriage and Spring Houses, and Gardens. You can also get your Laurel Highlands Pour Tour Passport stamped here!
- After a short, scenic drive, arrive at Greendance Winery at Sand Hill Farms! Home to fine views, delicious unique flavors, and live, acoustic entertainment. Enjoy a meal with your tasting and relax in this heavenly setting!
- Arrive at your lodging of choice, we recommend Hampton Inn Greensburg as a convenient and comfortable hub!

Day Two:

- Enjoy your complimentary breakfast at the Hampton Inn Greensburg.
- Depart for your journey to Frank Lloyd Wright's House on Kentuck Knob, one of four Wright-designed houses in the Laurel Highlands, including Fallingwater. Your group will enjoy an in-depth tour and strolling the pristine grounds and sculpture garden. Be sure to bring a camera – there are photos ops at every turn!
- Indulge in the finer things in life at Nemacolin Woodlands Resort's spa, shops, restaurants and grounds. Or, soak in the small-town charm with an afternoon of shopping in the Ligonier Diamond, a picturesque town square with dozens of one-of-a-kind boutiques, restaurants, cafes and markets
- Downtown Pittsburgh is just over an hour's drive from the Laurel Highlands. Plan to arrive in time for twilight views of the skyline at the Duquesne Incline, one of the few remaining funiculars in the United States. This recently restored landmark is a must-do in Pittsburgh, serving tourists and commuters since 1877.
- Bask in the fine dining and full service offered at Fogo de Chão. This vibrant, authentic Brazilian steakhouse - or churrascaria – specializes in the traditional gaucho method of roasting meats over an open fire. Fogo de Chão translates to "fire of ground." Your group will love starting things off with a caipirinha, the national drink of Brazil!
- A short walk from Fogo, spend the evening in the heart of Pittsburgh seeing a show in the Cultural District. With seven performing arts organizations, ten theaters, 20+ galleries, and more, the curtain is always up in the Cultural District.
