

PITTSBURGH

MIGHTY. BEAUTIFUL. WELCOMING.

Full STEAM Ahead

A STEAM-based Pittsburgh itinerary!

Teachers searching for an exciting, yet affordable, new destination for STEAM trips should look no further than Pittsburgh! Centrally located with exciting student-friendly attractions and programming, Pittsburgh is the perfect fit for student group tours.

This two-day, one-night itinerary offers just a selection of the student-friendly opportunities available. A visit to the University of Pittsburgh, Carnegie Mellon University, or one of our many other educational institutions can easily be added.

This itinerary features Destination: Greater Pittsburgh members.

DAY 1 - Rivers of Steel Explorer

Arrive in Pittsburgh in time for your afternoon on the water. Embark on the Rivers of Steel Explorer, the 94' green riverboat classroom for the interactive Environmental Science on the Three Rivers Program. Students will create and test hypothesis about the health of the river, providing an opportunity for discussion about river health, sustainability and more.

DAY 1 - Duquesne Incline

This evening, visit nearby Station Square along one of our three rivers, the Monongahela. Ride the Duquesne Incline to the top of Mt. Washington for sweeping views of the city and area. Take a tour to learn about the engineering aspect of the incline. Did you know that Pittsburgh has 446 bridges? Count as many as you can from the observation deck!

DAY 1 - Station Square

Station Square offers great student-friendly dining such as the Hard Rock Café and Buca di Beppo. Alternatively, Pittsburgh offers two Dave & Buster's locations in the nearby North Hills and Waterfront areas.

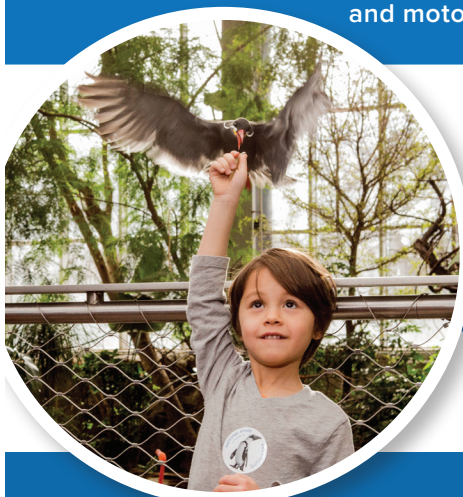

After dinner, check in to one of our many affordable and student-group friendly hotels with ample double-double rooms, including breakfast and motor coach parking.

DAY 2 - National Aviary

Start the day at the National Aviary, with one of their many student-friendly experiences, ranging from bird encounters to programs such as Veterinary Experience, Birds and Conservation, and Science and Animal Behavior.

For lunch, stop by one of the many Eat 'n Park locations offering an affordable and enjoyable diner experience. Their student group menu include a complimentary infamous Smiley Cookie!

DAY 2 - Cultural District

Spend the afternoon in Pittsburgh's diverse Cultural District, offering exciting shows, hands-on workshops, behind-the-scenes tours and more. The Cultural District is a 14-square-block section of Downtown that includes more than seven performance venues and 12 galleries. There are many weekday student matinees offered throughout the year, with a variety of tours and workshops available upon request.
